

DISCLAIMER FOR MEMBER PRODUCTIONS

All productions using FCTV facilities and/or equipment shall carry the following full-page credit for 10 seconds at the open of the program;

“The following program is a public access production of (Producer’s Name), who assumes full responsibility for its content. The content of this program does not represent the views of Falmouth Community Television, which serves as a forum for community expression and offers TV training, production facilities, and channel time to all Falmouth residents and organizations. “

(It is recommended that this credit is done as a “voice over” as well as a written credit)

All productions using FCTV facilities and/or equipment shall carry the following full-page credit at the end of the program.

“Production Facilities provided by Falmouth Community Television”